Reassign Registrations

Course Information

Reassign: Reassigned courses will be moved from their current record to the new record indicated in the table below, counting toward only one academic record. If the course should count toward both records, follow the internal articulation process instead.

Line	Semester	Year	Course Department	Course Number	Course Credits	Course Title	Current Academic Record of Course	New Academic Record for Course
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25								